JOEHLIN
GRACE CURTIS

Grace Curtis Joehlín passed away peacefully on January 20, 2002, at the Elizabeth Scott Memorial Care Center, surrounded by her loving family and those who have given her such tender care. Grace Rowena Cornwell was born April 25, 1908, in Ithaca, MI, to Josiah L. and Clara L. (Remaley) Cornwell of Elsie, MI. In 1928, she married Lorenzo F. Curtis, with whom she shared her life until his death in 1966. In 1974, she married Homer W. Joehlín, with whom she enjoyed the years until his death in 1979. Grace received her teaching certificate from Bowling Green State University in 1924, and her bachelor of education degree from the University of Toledo in 1956. She was a kindergarten teacher at Walbridge School for over twenty years, retiring in 1973. In addition to her public school teaching, she also taught violin, piano, and dancing. She also traveled extensively in the US and Europe.

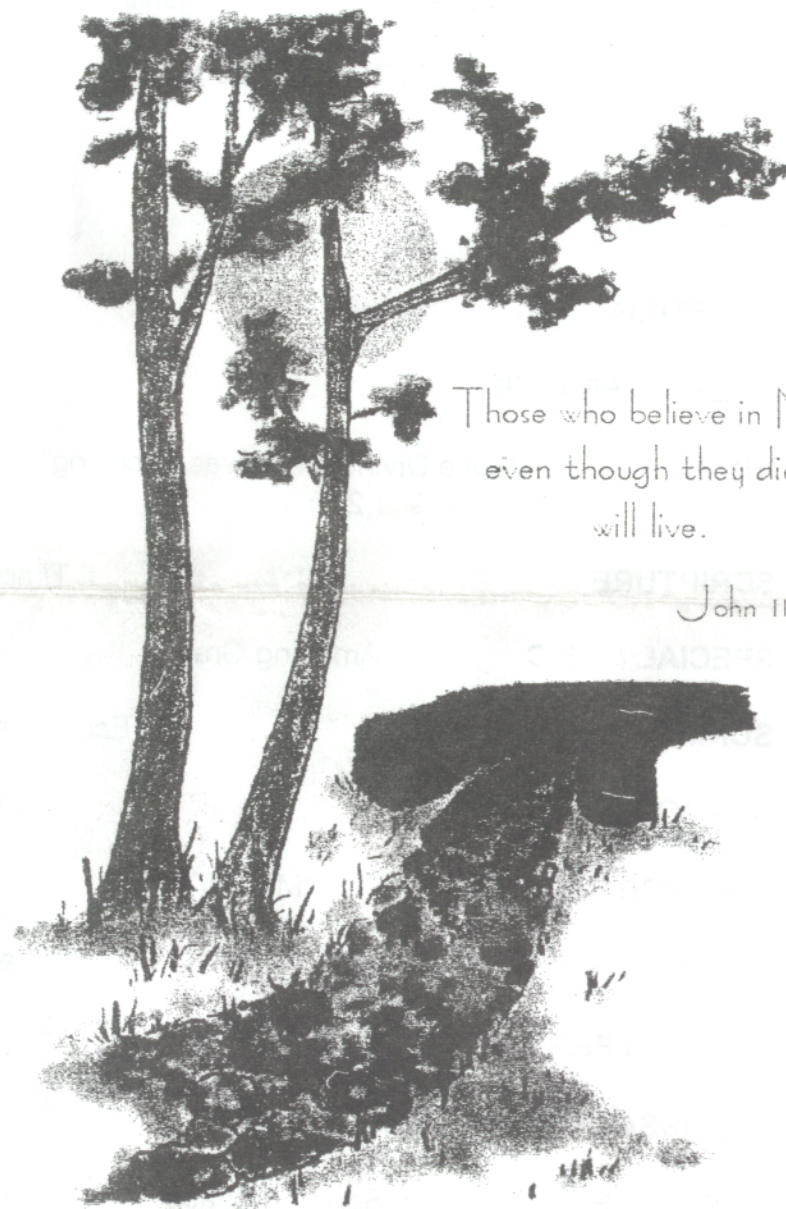

She was a member of St. Paul's Methodist Church and Dendarah Court of the Ladies Oriental Shrine, and participated for many years in Competitive Ballroom Dancing. She was also preceded in death by her sisters, Francis, Madge, and Hope, and her brother, Harry.

She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Larry and Maj Curtis; her stepson, Stan (Dolores) Joehlín, and stepdaughter, Nancy (John) Bonner; six step-grandchildren, and fourteen step-great-grandchildren. She lived a long and full life, but will be sadly missed by her family, friends, and former students.

A Memorial service will be held at St. Paul's Methodist Church on Tuesday, February 5, at 2 p.m. Memorial contributions may be made to St. Paul's Methodist Church Foundation.

Arrangements by Bersticker-Scott Funeral Home, 419-382-3456.

Those who believe in Me,
even though they die,
will live.
